

Activities of the History Department 2018

- On the 14th of March, 2018, a student seminar was organised for the 6th semester students on the topic "Annexation of Jaintia Kingdom".
- The students of the department along with the Khasi department welcomed the first semester students with an orientation programme on the 2nd of July 2018.
- Taking the college on "A March into History", through the bulletin board from the 23rd to the 28th July, 2018. The bulletin board was put up by the students of the department on both the main campus and the Oakville campus.
- On the 8th of August, 2018, a student seminar was organised for the 5th semester student on the topic "Berlin Blockade and Wall". This was followed by another seminar on "Space Exploration".
- On the occasion of Teachers' Day the major students of the department organised a special programme for the teachers of the department. The gesture was deeply appreciated.
- The Department on the 28th of September, 2018 invited a Guest Lecture on "Feminism". Professor Amena Passah from the department of History, North Eastern Hill University spoke on the topic highlighting the various waves of the feminist movement, the different genre of feminism and the place of women in the Khasi society.
- On the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti, two students from the 4th and 6th semester participated in a Radio Talk entitled "Gandhi a Legacy of Peace", conducted by All India Radio Shillong.
- On the 20th November, 2018, the 4th semester students attended a vigilance awareness programme at Youth Centre Shillong organised by UCO Bank.

- 29th November 2018

- To conclude the year the students accompanied by the teachers of the department went for a field trip to Jaintia Hills on the 29th of November, 2018. Some of the places visited were the famous archeological site, the Monoliths of Nartiang, the 500 year old Durga Temple at Nartiang, the Thadlaskein Lake, and the Tyrshi Falls. The trip was a wonderful learning experience for the students.

- 28th September 2018
- The Department invited a Guest Lecture on “Feminism”. Professor Amena Passah from the department of History, North Eastern Hill University spoke on the topic highlighting the various waves of the feminist movement, the different genre of feminism and the place of women in the Khasi society.

